Remedy for The Winter Blahhs!

Has winter got you down? Do you have Jumper cable-itis, and dead battery blues? Has every other stock on the market climbed except the ones you bought as a "sure thing?" Well, booby, call a babysitter, throw your wife in the Volkswagen and motor on over to the Holiday Inn at Exit 8 of the Maine Turnpike and take a double dose of "Old Stump Blower", enjoy a scrumptious meal, and thrill to three acts of "George M". It'll sure beat sulphur and Molasses!

Ann Slanders:

Dear Ann Slanders,

My husband is still re-living the 1961 football game with Fryeburg Academy. One of our class friends played on Fryeburg's winning team—it sure strains our relationship. What can I do?

Desperate Gouldite wife

Dear Desperate,

Invite the Fryeburg couple to join you at the "George M" dinner-theater on March 26 and show them Gould Alumni have it all together.

Gould Alumni Sing Along With George

The Southern Maine chapter of Gould Academy Alumni sang along with George last Friday evening at the Exit 8 Holiday Inn. No, George Bowhay has not taken over the Mitch Miller band. We're referring to "George M", the hit musical superbly performed by the Lyric Theater. After a relaxing dinner and reminiscing about such things as ski trips in the old cracker box, state track meets, and Tuesday night dances, former Gouldites roused and raised their voices to the timely tunes of "George M". Good Cheer pervaded in the banquet room and spirits rose to a fever pitch when Al Barth and Bill Cousins did their own impression of "I'm A Yankee Doodle Dandy" on the table. One alumnus, Maude Veeble, class of '09 was heard to exclaim, "I haven't had so much fun since the boys chess team crashed the Latin banquet and started peeling grapes!"

Boys Basketball - Last years Class D State Champs are doing it again by winning the Western Maine Class D Tourney. Now on to the State Finals.

Girls Skiing - The Gould Huskies won the State Class A Ski Championships held this year at Sunday River and hosted by Gould.

Dear Ann Slanders,

My husband-Gould 54 - and I have been having an argument - If I'm right he's promised to take me to the Gould dinner-theater on March 26 to see "George M". He says there were five tennis courts at Gould; I say only 4.

Tennis Champ

Dear champ,

There were only 4 courts. Your husband couldn't have had his mind on the game. I'll bet he thought the trees in front of Gehring Hall were just bushes. Enjoy "George M".

Cheerleaders

G-O-U-L-D Rah! Rah! Rah! echoes out again and again as our boys make touchdown after touchdown. Our peppy new Varsity Cheerleaders are Susie Wight, (head cheerleader), Sandy Myers, Cleta Waldron, Pat Gunther and Marty Myers. The Jayvees have a lively fivesome this year, too—Glenyce Berry, Rosie Beverage, Roberta Bean, Lillian Currier and Nancy Bales. Remember, the cheerleaders can't do all the cheering, so here is a cheer they'd like you to learn.
